

Dt: Oct. 13, 2008

Report

Four B.Tech (Industrial Biotechnology) students (Shreya sharma, Payal Dhar, Surbhi Dubey, Ashish Gupta ) and one research scholar (Munish Sharma) accompanied by Dr. S. Potukuchi, Asst. Prof. SBT were deputed to attend a two-day UGC sponsored National Seminar on “Trends in Modern Biosciences” and integrated workshop on “Technique in Tissue Culture” held on 29-30th Sept., 2008 in the Department of Biotechnology, Botany and Bioinformatics, Hans Raj Mahila Vidyalaya, Jalander.

Eminent personalities like Prof. S.P. Vij Punjab University, Chandigarh; Prof. S.S. Gosal, PAU Ladhiana; Prof.G.S.Virk; Prof. Avinash Nagpal; Prof. Saroj Arora; Prof. Gurucharan Kaur from GNDU, Amritsar; Prof.G.S.Randhawa IIT, Roorkee; Dr Shiv Ram, Birla Institute of Science Research, Jaipur; Dr.Rajnkant Namdeo M/S IBI Biosolution, Chandigarh attended the meeting and delivered lectures in their respective fields of expertise.

It gave a unique opportunity to students to interact with the above distinguished academicians and researchers particularly in the field of Signal Transduction, RNA interference, Apoptosis, Recent advances in Drug Designing and Molecular Bioscience and Conservation of Biodiversity through in Vitro techniques.